The Art Quilt Collection

Designs & Inspiration from Around the World | Foreword by Linda Seward

The Art Quilt Collection profiles more than 100 artists in the field—many of them award-winning—along with their stunning creations. Using the well-established methods and styles of the centuries-old handicraft, art quilts combine fabrics and other materials to create innovative and contemporary results. Step-by-step photographs and instructions illuminate some of the techniques with which scraps of fabric become vibrant works of art. Readers will be inspired to experiment with quilting techniques and create their own unique pieces.

Quilts and artists include:

- Central Park West Before Dawn by Linda Levin (USA)
- Nautilus Longlife by Verena Matter (Switzerland)
- Tulips by Ineke Berlyn (United Kingdom)
- Tropical Snowball by Barbara W. Watler (USA)
- Bongwefela by Sally Scott (South Africa)
- Blue Ocean, Turquoise Sea by Daphne Greig (Canada)
- Graffiti by Gabrielle Paquin (France)
- The Forest by Lin Hsin-Chen (Taiwan)

About the Author:

Linda Seward has written ten books on quilt making, including The Complete Book of Patchwork, Quilting and Appliqué, which many people call their quilting "bible." Linda is currently Chairman of The London Quilters, and she writes a regular column for the British magazine, The Quilter, entitled "At the Sharp End." Linda lives in Primrose Hill, London, with her husband and three children.
