

new from sixth&spring

books

CONTACT

Meaghan Finnerty
mfinnerty@sterlingpublishing.com
(646) 688-2504

Publication date: November 2009

Sixth&Spring Books
New York, NY USA
Hardcover, 172 pages
ISBN-13: 978-1-933027-83-8
Price: $24.95

COLOR by Kristin

How to Design Your Own Beautiful Knits

◆ KRISTIN NICHOLAS

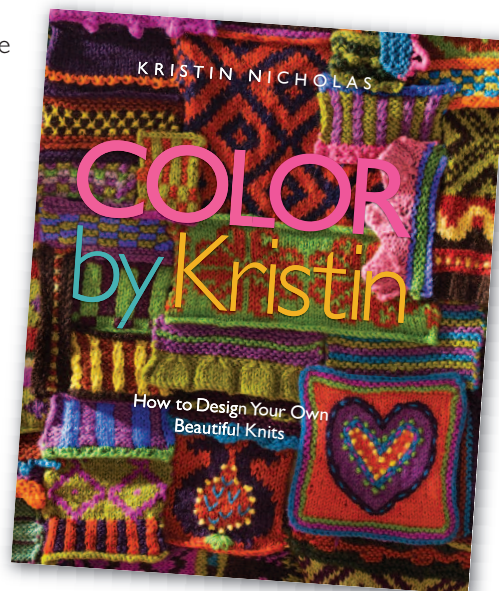

Knitting has never been so colorful! In this indispensable guide to Fair Isle knitting, designer, artist and color expert Kristin Nicholas takes the mystery out of knitting with multiple colors and makes it accessible to all knitters.

Lavishly illustrated with full-color photographs, Color by Kristin is chock-full of original patterns for gorgeously colorful knits. From coordinating mother-daughter mittens, to an adorable baby afghan, to a fabulously mod ottoman, to a strikingly colorful yoke sweater, there is something for knitters of all skill levels and styles.

Features include:

- More than 25 stunning designs for sweaters, coats and shawls; scarves, mittens and other accessories; and home décor items.
- An overview of the color wheel and how to work with color.
- A thorough introduction to Fair Isle knitting.
- Step-by-step guidance for designing Fair Isle patterns.
- Edgings and chart glossaries for customizing designs.

KRISTIN NICHOLAS is a renowned knitwear designer, decorative artist and author who was named one of Vogue Knitting's Master Knitters of the 1990s. Her designs have been featured in Vogue Knitting, Family Circle and other publications. She lives in western Massachusetts.

See sample pages from the book and find additional promotional materials at sixthandspringbooks.com.