

new from

knitting over the edge

unique ribs • cords • appliqués • colors • nouveau

following the great success of the knitting reference hit Knitting On the Edge, Sixth&Spring Books is proud to present Knitting Over the Edge, with hundreds more great edgings for every knitter's library. This collection showcases more than 350 new and unusual edge combinations—unique ribs, cords, appliqués, colors, and innovative new edgings—to transform any garment from simple to stunning. In addition, the author has created a one-of-a-kind garment for each chapter, including an elegant rose-adorned capelet, a playful circle scarf, a sophisticated coat with faux-fur edging, and more. All the edgings and garments are accompanied by detailed, step-by-step instructions. No matter your skill level, you're sure to find plenty of inspiration in this masterful collection of knitted edgings!

Contact:

Fax: (646) 336-3960

bookpromo@sohopublishingco.com

Author: Nicky Epstein

Publication Date: Fall 2005

Sixth&Spring Books

New York, NY USA

Hardcover

ISBN: 1-931543-75-5

160 pages

Price: $29.95

One of today's hottest knitwear designers, Nicky Epstein has gained nationwide recognition for her distinctive, innovative work and informative workshops. She has authored numerous books, including Knitting On the Edge, Knits for Barbie Doll and Crochet for Barbie Doll. Her designs have also been featured in many knitting publications, including Vogue Knitting, as well as on television.

